1971 Carthage Anna

Carthage High School Carthage, Ind.

We, the Senior Class of 1971, do hereby dedicate our edition of the Ca Hi Ana to Mr.
Thomas L. Mercer.

Mr. Mercer, we have had many good times together; but the time has come to say goodbye.

We deeply appreciate all you have done for us and hope you will forgive us for the headaches we have caused.

Your guiding hand and never-ending patience will always be remembered.

Summer

Carthage High School offered a summer program this year to all high school students. Mr. Byron Smith taught the typing class and Mr. Bud King taught the Drivers Education Class. This program has been going on successfully now for about two years.

The Carthage High School Band, consisting of around seventy marching members, had a very busy summer this year. The Band placed seventh at the Delaware County Fair, fifth at the Shelby County Fair, and sixth at the State Fair. They also marched at the Knightstown bridge opening and at Coney Island. The band took a trip to Bardstown, Ky., during Aug. 21-22 and saw the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln, the home of Steven Foster, Churchill Downs, and a musical, "The Steven Foster Story."

The bridge between Carthage and Knightstown had a slight mishap when a truck tried to cross it last September. So it was torn down and a new one was completed this summer. An opening was held for the new bridge with several governmental officials present. The Carthage Band, and the Knightstown Band also, presented some entertainment for the people.

Activities 1970

Carthage was well represented in some very exciting summer trips this year. Jim Proctor attended a National Leadership Conference in Washington, D.C., for all F.F.A. Chapter presidents. Diane Eakin was awarded a trip as a Senior Girl Scout to DeMoine, Iowa, to learn about the different customs of Indians. Only one girl from each council was selected to attend.

Cathy Wright and Jerry Dixon were honored as being this year's Girls and Boys State Representatives. Cathy was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and Jerry by the American Legion. They were selected on the basis of leadership, scholarship, honesty, respect for our flag, physical fitness, talent, and the ability to get along with others.

The 4-H Junior Leaders of Rush County took an exchange trip in August to Boulder County, Colorado. Pennina Shields and Jim Proctor were the two representatives from Carthage. The Junior Leaders are now planning for the exchange visit of the Boulder County Junior Leaders to Rush County in July of 1971.

Fall Festival 25th

To help honor this special year, the parade was the largest in the Fall Festival's history. The parade had a record breaking sixty-two units. This was the second largest parade in the state of Indiana. For the first time, there were some military units participating.

Parade 1970 Anniversary

In this year's band contest there were eight bands. First place was awarded to New Castle. Center Grove captured second while Blue River took third. Among the others participating were Eastern Hancock, Knights-town, Tri High, Hagerstown, and Morristown.

The Carthage Band presented their award winning State Fair show, but they were not in competition.

Fall Festival Queen Pageant

On Sunday afternoon the excited Fall Festival queen contestants and their sponsors met in the Community Center for tea with the judges. Here the three noted the poise and personality exhibited by the girls.

On Wednesday evening, the final judging took place. Each girl appeared on stage 3 times, in formals and in school clothing. Only one girl could win, and this year the lucky girl was Miss Marita Roland. The first runner-up was Cindy Stewart; second runner-up, Terri Deboard. Miss Congeniality was Margie Grandison.

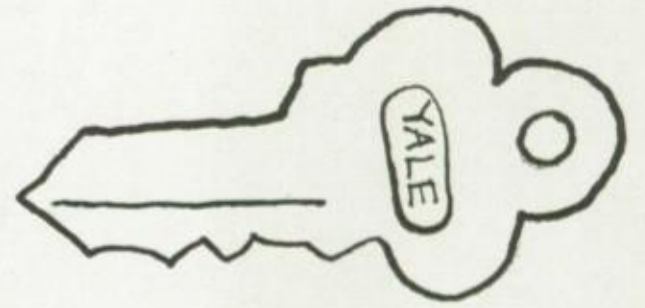

On Thursday evening Marita was guest at the smorgasbord held by all the churches of the community.

Friday at the talent show the entire court was introduced; and on Saturday afternoon they appeared in the parade.

On Saturday evening the Queen and her escort, Dan Edwards, were guests of honor at the teen dance held in the "dungeon of Tweedy Castle."

This brought to a close the exciting week of the 1970 Carthage Fall Festival.

The local P-TO gave a party for all the children of the community on Halloween night. During the parade of costumes, the following were picked as the 1970 prize winners: Greg Stoner, ugliest; John Henderson, youngest; Debbie Nigh, best witch, Kevin Thorpe, best ghost; and Sandra Gray, prettiest.

The Eighth Grade General Music Class wanted to give an operetta. After much research and reading they chose to present THE STOCKINGS WERE HUNG for the elementary students. The setting is the top of a fireplace mantel on Christmas Eve and in the wee hours of Christmas morn. The characters were animals, storybook people, an elf, and, of course, Santa.

Carthage High School Band

The band appeared in three forms this year—as a marching band at the Fall Festival; as a concert band for the Sacred Music, the Christmas, and the Spring Concerts; and as a pep band at the basketball games. At the latter the audiences were also delighted by the synchronized routines of the pompon girls.

Inspecting trophies won this year are the band officers—Steve Smith, President; Roxann Webster, Vice President; Patia Whitfield, Secretary; and Marita Roland, Treasurer.

The senior band award sweaters are given to students who have been in band all 8 semesters of their high school careers. This year's recipients are Patia Whitfield, Steve Smith and Roxann Webster.

The CHS Chorus, consisting of seventy voices, has endeavored to participate in the Fall Concert, the Christmas Program, and the vocal Spring Show. It has also sung at different convocations at school, such as for Thanksgiving and Easter. The organization joined 10 other schools again this year in a District Choral Festival for Eastern Indiana.

The 8th Grade Chorus formed from the general music class, existed only the 1st semester of the school year. But during this time they were very busy making appearances at the Fall Festival talent show, Open House, the Fall Concert, & the Christmas program. They also went carolling at the Hancock County Hospital. The highlight of their semester's work was a Christmas operetta given for the elementary students.
